GEORGIA AND ARMENIA

Crossroads of Antiquity

This fascinating Adventure through two former Soviet republics, Georgia and Armenia, gives us a chance to delve into their rich history and ancient culture. Located on the Southern Caucasus, these countries were greatly influenced by the fact that they sit on the crossroads connecting Asia and Europe, with Armenia on the route of the Great Silk Road. Due to conquests over the ages, these two countries have experienced much cultural diversity resulting in a variety of architectural styles ranging from medieval to neoclassical to Art Nouveau to Stalinist. On our journey we will come across many medieval churches and forts as well as numerous monuments and masterpieces dating from antiquity through the middle ages.

All the while we're delving into the rich history of this region, we will be travelling through the breathtaking scenery of rugged mountains and twisty river valleys, past extinct volcanoes and along the coastline of the Black Sea.

Key attractions include:

- Tbilisi, Georgia's capital and ancient crossroad city

- Kakheti, the oldest wine region in the world
- Georgian Military Highway that connects Georgia and Russia
- Telavi, the most medieval city in Georgia
- Borjomi, a resort town famous for its mineral springs
- Svaneti, the highest inhabited area in the Caucasus
